Dear Phil, Stan, Ann, Hazel, Mandy and the team,

I just wanted to drop you a line to say thank you for everything this year – a great job, as usual.

I know the hard work that you all put into making it a success and it is much appreciated. It makes it so much easier when the people you work with are professional, reliable, have a good sense of humour and are nice to have around!

I've received so many lovely comments from members about the food and even some by email when I got back to the office today, with particular praise for the beef and the lamb.

Please pass on my thanks to everyone involved over the four days.

Looking forward to working with you again next year.

With best wishes
